Club Shoot, March 8

Even at sixty degrees, it felt like spring had arrived to the thirteen hearty shooters who participated. Lunch was grilled hamburgers, chips, and cookies.

A hotly contested, but friendly competition broke out in the men's bowhunter's freestyle class. Uwe set a fast pace on the first fourteen, but Frank Jr. managed to nudge him by one point on 15-28 and stay on top of our leader board. Scores as follows: (Yes, that's Frank Sr. shooting a wheel bow!)

PRESIDENT'S CALL TO ACTION!

Our April 11 work party will require as many members as we can muster to prepare for the beginning of our Monday Night 3D league on April 20th.

The entire range needs our attention from grass mowing to removing dead fall from the target lanes. Targets need to be replaced and food supplies and cooking gear inventoried. If you can't make the work party, please plan on helping out on the 20th. Target setup will begin at 9 am. See you at the range. Andrea

Membership Meeting, March 4th

Andrea opened the meeting and rearranged the agenda because Jill Langston's presentation of the draft logo designs had to be presented early to enable her to leave. It was evident that Jill's art class had put a lot of effort into creating several very desirable designs. Members reviewed each one very carefully and decided that two of the designs might best be incorporated into one.

New by-laws provisions were approved by SAA and will now go forward to the NFAA annual meeting. The 3D leg of the regional shoot will be at Rancho Neblina on May 3. This will be followed by the field archery round being shot at S.F. Archers on Oct. 11th.

Linda Myers reported that as we enter the beginning of another season, the cash balances in the treasury appear to be adequate.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved after a few spelling errors were correction. 1st and 2nd V.P. had no report.

Rain forecast for Saturday made doubtful the prospects for a work party. It looks better for the club shoot. Bob Jimenez suggested sending a last minute work party emailing to the members on Friday night if the rain didn't develop.

John and Andrea reported that the negotiations for an updated Special Use Agreement with the Park District had hit some snags. There are several outstanding issues along with the suggestion that a day camp might some day supplant the archery range. These issues will come to a head during the District's Board of Directors meeting in March.

Briones Archers are planning a 40th Anniversary celebration for May 31st, Memorial Day weekend. The invitations will go out to all club members, Monday Night 3D participants and all EBRP employees. There will be a 3D setup, free lunch, and tours of the range.

El Dorado Hills N. Amer. 3D, Mar. 28-29

Eight Briones Archers attended on Sunday the 29th. With an upper level wind trough flowing out of the north, gusts of up to 40 MPH aggravated everyone. Predictably, the scores shot on a calm Saturday were much higher than on a windy Sunday, especially in the highly competitive BHFS class. Still, our members acquitted themselves very well.

Winkie's Wisdom

"Of course you can't take it with you . . . and with high taxes, lawyer's fees, and funeral expenses you certainly won't be able to leave it behind either."
